

Year 7 Catchup Impact Log: 2016-17

Person Responsible: JHU

Updated: July 2017

Priority Focus	Initial Status September 2016	Actions	Impact Evidence (RAG) March 2017	Actions	Impact Evidence (RAG) July 2017
Ensure that all Year 7 pupils who join the school below 100 in English progress to at least 100 by the end of the year.	72 pupils started school with a score below the expected standard of 100. Of these 49% would be expected to achieve a score equivalent 20 100 by the end of the academic year (GCSE grade 1 would be the min standard expected. Between 94-99 = 35 students. Between 90-93 = 13 students Between 85-89 = 14 students Below 85 = 10 students.	SFA bought and used at all levels of the English curriculum. Below level 4 pupils are doing specific "quest" lessons.  All pupils below 100 in English and maths receive two lessons a fortnight of intervention instead of MFL.  Accelerated reader used for students.  By October 28 students (39%) remained below the expected standard in English.	21 students (29%) remain below the expected standard in English	Remaining pupils continue to use accelerated reader during tutor time.	29 students (40%) of students failed to achieve a grade 1 by the end of the year.
Ensure that all Year 7 pupils who join the school below 100 in Maths progress to at least 100 by the end of the year.	61 pupils joined the school below 100 in Maths. Of these 32 would be expected to achieve 100 by the end of the academic year (expected standard being at least grade 1). Between 94-99 = 32 students.	Pupils in 7C3 (significantly below 100) attend maths lessons each day with CMK and MLA.  Primary school teacher sees pupils below 100 each Monday.  All pupils below 100 in English and maths receive two lessons a fortnight of intervention instead of MFL.	13 pupils (21%) remain below the expected standard.	Remaining pupils now work in one class with AHT.	All pupils have met the expected minimum standard.

	Between 90-93 = 11 students Between 85-89 = 7 students Below 85 = 11 students.	By October 16 students (26%) remained below the expected standard
--	--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-------------------------------------------------------------------	--	--	--